The county clerk can give you pointers on how to fix the water in your well so the family won't use half so ingredient. He uses milk-just plain cow's milk-in his'n.

Monday evening a tremendous rain and hail storm passed southeast of this city along Clear creek. The hall was small and did not do much damage, but when it ceased falling the ground looked like it was covered with snow.

Report comes from Hardesty of a cyclone which sported around promiscusualy on the Hackberry last Saturday. We could not learn the extent of the damage, but according to the report a number of horses and cattle were killed, and some property destroyed.

The editor of an exchange says he stepped into the store of a business man who did not advertise, and ws surpr ised to find him busy. The storekeeper had the itch; likewise a waterbury watch; and when he wasn't scratching himself he was winding his watch.

Messrs, Bob McFarland and John George were up from Beaver the first of the week attending to business. On Monday night they tackled the Masonic billy goat and rode him to a finish. It takes a cowman to do the trick neatly and completely .- Liberal News.

The river began rising Sunday mern ing, caused by heavy rains west, and rose gradually all day. About five o'clock the waves began lapping over the banks, and soon the low bottom land was floeded. The water subsided in a few hours, and no serious damage was done in this locality.

The Wichita Beacon says that "Oklahoma farmers are wearing a watermelon smile on their countenances." The smile is Beaver county will have to be pretty broad to fit the watermelous this year.

Ed Hibbs, Lon Haskell and Ernest Savoy had a rocky time coming from Englewood with freight last week. They struck beg holes innumerable, Ed's lows: wagon turned over once, and they had all the trouble they needed, without borrowing any.

A tremendous rain fell last Saturday night, enough water falling in a few minutes to tarn all the draws into raging torrents. The faithful, including the writer, were corralled at the church, and most of them had to wade to get home. Rev. Munsell had his buggy there, and ran a free delivery for awhile.

Don't forget that the decoration services will be held at the cemetery in the said special meeting, stating the purpose forenoon on Decoration Day, and the for which it is called, shall be placed in address and other services will be held three public places within the district in the afternoon. The time set in the at least ten days previous to the time of printed program in this paper are exactly | such meeting."

This sounds rather odd, A dispatch 6, states that forest fires are burning sercely is all directions and unless rain comes soon many farmers will lose their homes. The cranberry and blueberry brush are all afire and a light crop of each will be the result. They should where it rains.

Judge Tracy spent a few days at his claim, near Gate, last week week and this, putting in alfalfa seed and seeing them. Speaking of the air castles, that things were done according to Hoyle. The Judge feels very sore over the impression which prevailed that he wasn't much of a worker. He now puts forth the claim that he has always been one of the most industrious men in the Elder C. C. Bentley preached at the Presbyterian church in this place last Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The rain interfered with people getting to church, but in spite of this he had fairly good sized audiences. He showed that he was a "workman who need not be ashamed." and greatly interested the people who heard him. He will probably preach here again sometime in June. He started for his home on the Kiowa Monday merning.

The senior of this office has planted a garden. We set out cabbage and tomato plants, and they did well for a day or two, and then the cut worms began operations on them and consumed them all. It was hard on the plants, but we now have the finest patch of fat cutworms in the county. The peas, beans, and other seeds that were planted are not up yet, but we think they will get to growing in time to save the cutworms from death by starvation. Even conceding that cattle are incredible money makers in this country, Judge Hutchison has it figured out that poultry would prove far more more profitable. We baven't examined the Judge's figures, and he may be correct, but there is one drawback that will mitigate against the business here-it takes work. The Channing, Texas, Register has under course of construction a large numfrom Shell Lake, Wisconsis, dated May ber of air castles which are of stupenduous height and massive and imposing appearance. They are all built on the prospect of the extension of the Rock Island southwest from Liberal, which said road is being built at the rate of several million miles a day by the papers of move their farms to Beaver county eastern Kansas northern Texas and New Mexico. The road will probably be built and have an established train service before the road officials are aware of it. It would be quite a surprise to though, they look very much like the same ones that the Hardesty Herald worked on for several years, but somehow Dick could never get them to stand, But we understand that Dick has quit the carpenters' trade new, and would oppose the extension on the ground that it would work an injury on the cowmen already here.

Treasurer Williamson received the following dispatch from Jerseyvilles Ill., last night:

HOYAL BARING POWDER Co., NEW YORK "Property sold to you for debt and costs-thirty-three bundred."

This is in reference to the property attacked by treasurer Williamson for recovery of money deposited in the Meade Bank and lost through the failure of that institution. The possession of this preperty makes him feel pretty safe. The former owners have fifteen months in which to redeem the property and it is not likely that they will allow it to be lost to them by default in redeeming.

Rock me to sleep had reference to a girl. There is too much lovingly, softly and longingly about it to strike the average boy. Besides a boy doesn't usually need to be rocked to sleep. Give him half a show and he will do a job of sleeping that while it lasts would make Rip Van Winkle ashamed. If that poem had peen written from the standpoint of a bey it would run something like this:

"Backward, turn backward, O time in our flight, make me a kid again for about a fortnight. Smooth from my forehead the furrows of care, over the hald spot sow a new crop of bair. Plant a small stone bruise on one of my heels. o I'll remember just how a bey feels.
